OPENING STATEMENT

On July 31, 2001, Deputies Adan Torres and Richard Walters were driving southbound in the 8800 block of South Central Avenue. As they passed [redacted] South Central Avenue, they heard automatic weapon fire. Deputy Torres immediately drove quickly southbound on South Central Avenue, out of the "kill zone." Deputy Torres maneuvered his car into a U-turn, stopping northbound on South Central Avenue at 88th Place. As he stopped, he saw a male, Black suspect standing in an open lot at the north corner of 88th Place. The suspect was holding a AK-47 assault rifle, pointing it toward the deputies and firing at them. The suspect ran in a southeast direction, across 88th Place, stopping on the south sidewalk. The suspect again pointed the assault rifle at the deputies. Both deputies, fearing for their lives, fired their duty weapons (Berrettas) at the suspect. The suspect fled eastbound on 88th Place, then southbound through an alley.

Internal Affairs Bureau Sergeants Larry Gregg and Jerry Greene, along with Lieutenant Donnie Mauldin, responded to handle the Deputy Involved Shooting. Senior Criminalist Dale Higashi, Gil Trujillo and Lisa Jackson responded from the Crime Lab to handle the crime scene investigation. Deputy Brian Miller responded for the Force Training Unit. EMPLOYEE STATEMENTS

Deputy Adan Torres declined being interviewed by Internal Affairs Bureau immediately following the shooting without a representative. His observations and actions were described in a supplemental report written by him.

Deputy Torres said he was driving his radio car, with Deputy Walters as his partner, southbound on South Central Avenue when he heard 9-10 gunshots. He immediately recognized the gunshots as coming from a high power rifle. Deputy Torres described the sound of the gunshots as so loud that he believed the person shooting was standing next to him. Deputy Torres wrote that he was overcome with a level of fear he had never felt before. Deputy Torres believed he was going to be killed.

> IAB NOTE: While speaking with Deputy Torres on August 1, 2001, regarding him being interviewed, Deputy Torres stated that he actually placed himself in a near fetal position, on the front seat of the car, turning his back to the driver's side door when he heard the shots. He did this because he felt he needed to protect himself from the rounds that he knew were going to strike his car.

Deputy Torres said that after driving south a few feet, he began to look for the person shooting at him. He saw two Black males running away (southbound) from the apartment building through a tire shop parking lot. One of the males was carrying a rifle in his right hand. Deputy Torres wrote that the rifle appeared to be an AK-47 assault rifle.

Deputy Torres drove south to 88th Place. Just south of the intersection, he began to initiate a u-turn to re-engage the suspects. As he was turning, he heard another volley of gunfire. He saw the muzzle flash of the gun and knew the suspect was firing at him. Deputy Torres said he again became frightened and lowered himself in the seat of his car. The two suspects ran south through the tire shop parking lot, then diagonally across 88th Place, ending up on the south sidewalk of 88th Place.

Deputy Torres positioned his vehicle on the east side of South Central Avenue, a few feet south of 88th Place. Deputy Torres positioned his car there so that he and Deputy Walters would not be in the direct line of fire from the suspects. They were able to see the suspects by looking through a chain link fence, eastward on 88th Place.

Deputy Torres quickly exited his vehicle and took cover behind the engine block. As he looked east on 88th Place, he saw the suspect carrying the rifle in both hands. Deputy Torres yelled at the suspect to stop and drop the gun. The suspect ran from north to south, passing in front of a large truck, reappearing on the south sidewalk. When he reappeared, the suspect had brought the rifle up, onto his shoulder and was beginning to raise the barrel, aiming it at the deputies. Deputy Torres felt the suspect was going to shoot him. Deputy Torres fired approximately four rounds from his Beretta. The suspect did not change his position and continued aiming at the deputies. Deputy Torres fired an additional 3-4 rounds at the suspect, waited, and fired a third volley of 3-4 rounds. The suspect then ran away, eastbound on 88th Place.

Deputy Torres looked over to Deputy Walters and saw that he had moved to the southwest corner of a building approximately 40 feet south of their radio car. Deputy Walters was broadcasting, via his radio that they were involved in a shooting. Deputy Torres ensured that Deputy Walters had broadcast that the suspect was armed with an AK-47.

Deputy Torres looked toward the apartment building and saw people laying on the ground and others were yelling. Deputy Torres told Deputy Walters that he believed someone had been shot. Deputy Walters then requested Paramedics. Deputy Torres then moved to where Deputy Walters had positioned himself at the northwest wall of a building on South Central Avenue. The two deputies then awaited back-up units to arrive.

Deputy Richard Walters declined being interviewed by Internal Affairs Bureau immediately following the shooting without a representative. His observations and actions were described in a supplemental report written by him.

Deputy Walters stated that he was the bookman as he and Deputy Torres drove southbound past [redacted] South Central Avenue. Deputy Walters heard 10-12 gunshots. He described them as large caliber. Deputy Walters said his body immediately tensed and he expected to feel the impact of rounds against the radio car and his body.

Deputy Walters yelled to Deputy Torres to "Go! Go! Go!" Deputy Torres immediately drove quickly, southbound Central Avenue to 88th Place. Deputy Walters heard 4-6 additional rounds being fired and Deputy Torres yelled that the suspects were shooting at them.

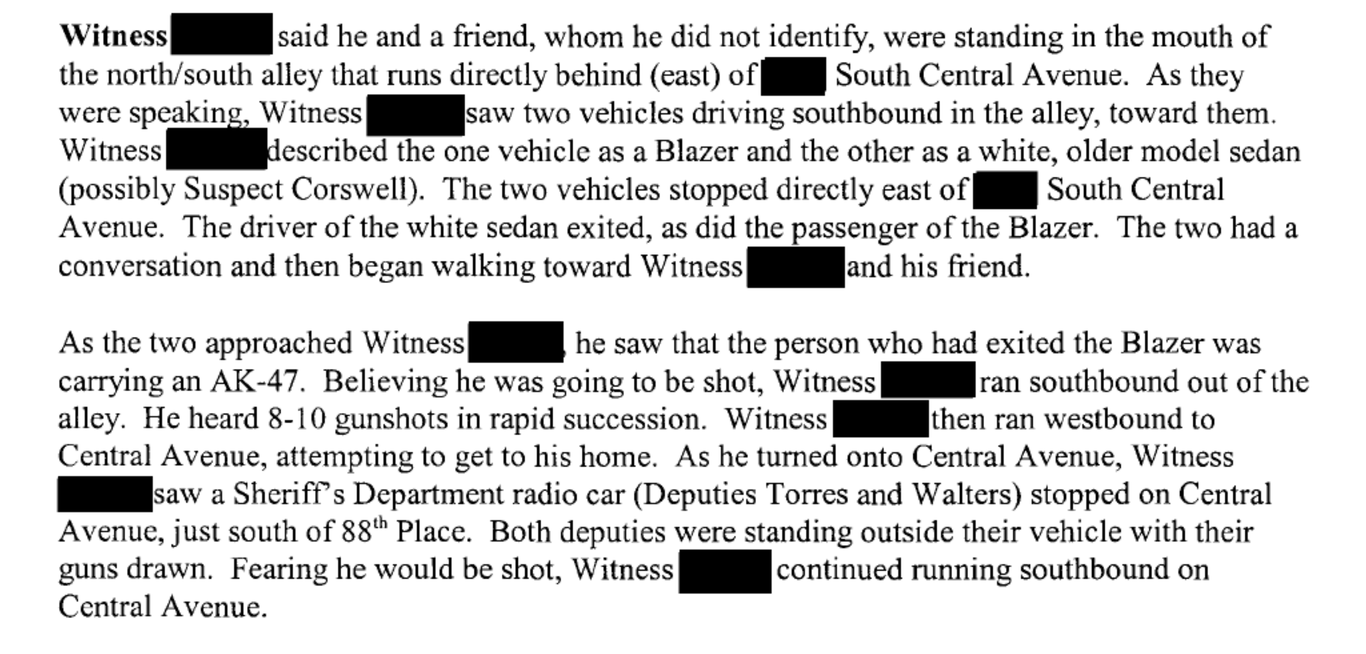

Deputy Torres made a u-turn, stopping at the southeast corner of South Central Avenue and 88th Place, facing northbound.

Deputy Walters saw a Black male running eastbound on the north sidewalk of 88th Place. This male was carrying an assault rifle. Deputy Walters began exiting the radio car while broadcasting to units that he and Deputy Torres needed assistance. The suspect ran in a southeast direction across 88th Place, reaching the south sidewalk. The suspect stopped, looked at the deputies and raised the rifle in the direction of the deputies. Deputy Walters estimated that the suspect was 30-35 yards away from him and Deputy Torres.

As the suspect raised the rifle, Deputy Walters wrote that he felt a wave of fear envelope his body. He feared that the suspect would kill him or Deputy Torres. Deputy Walters stopped transmitting on the radio and fired 2-3 rounds from his Beretta. Deputy Walters said he was standing in the passenger door jamb when he fired. The suspect did not lower the rifle, but was now pointing the barrel of the gun directly at he and Deputy Torres.

Deputy Walters looked to his south and saw a building (approximately 50 feet to the south). He felt the building would provide better cover/concealment than the car door. While moving toward the wall, Deputy Walters fired an additional 3-5 rounds from his Beretta. The suspect ran eastbound on 88th Place and Deputy Walters lost sight of him.

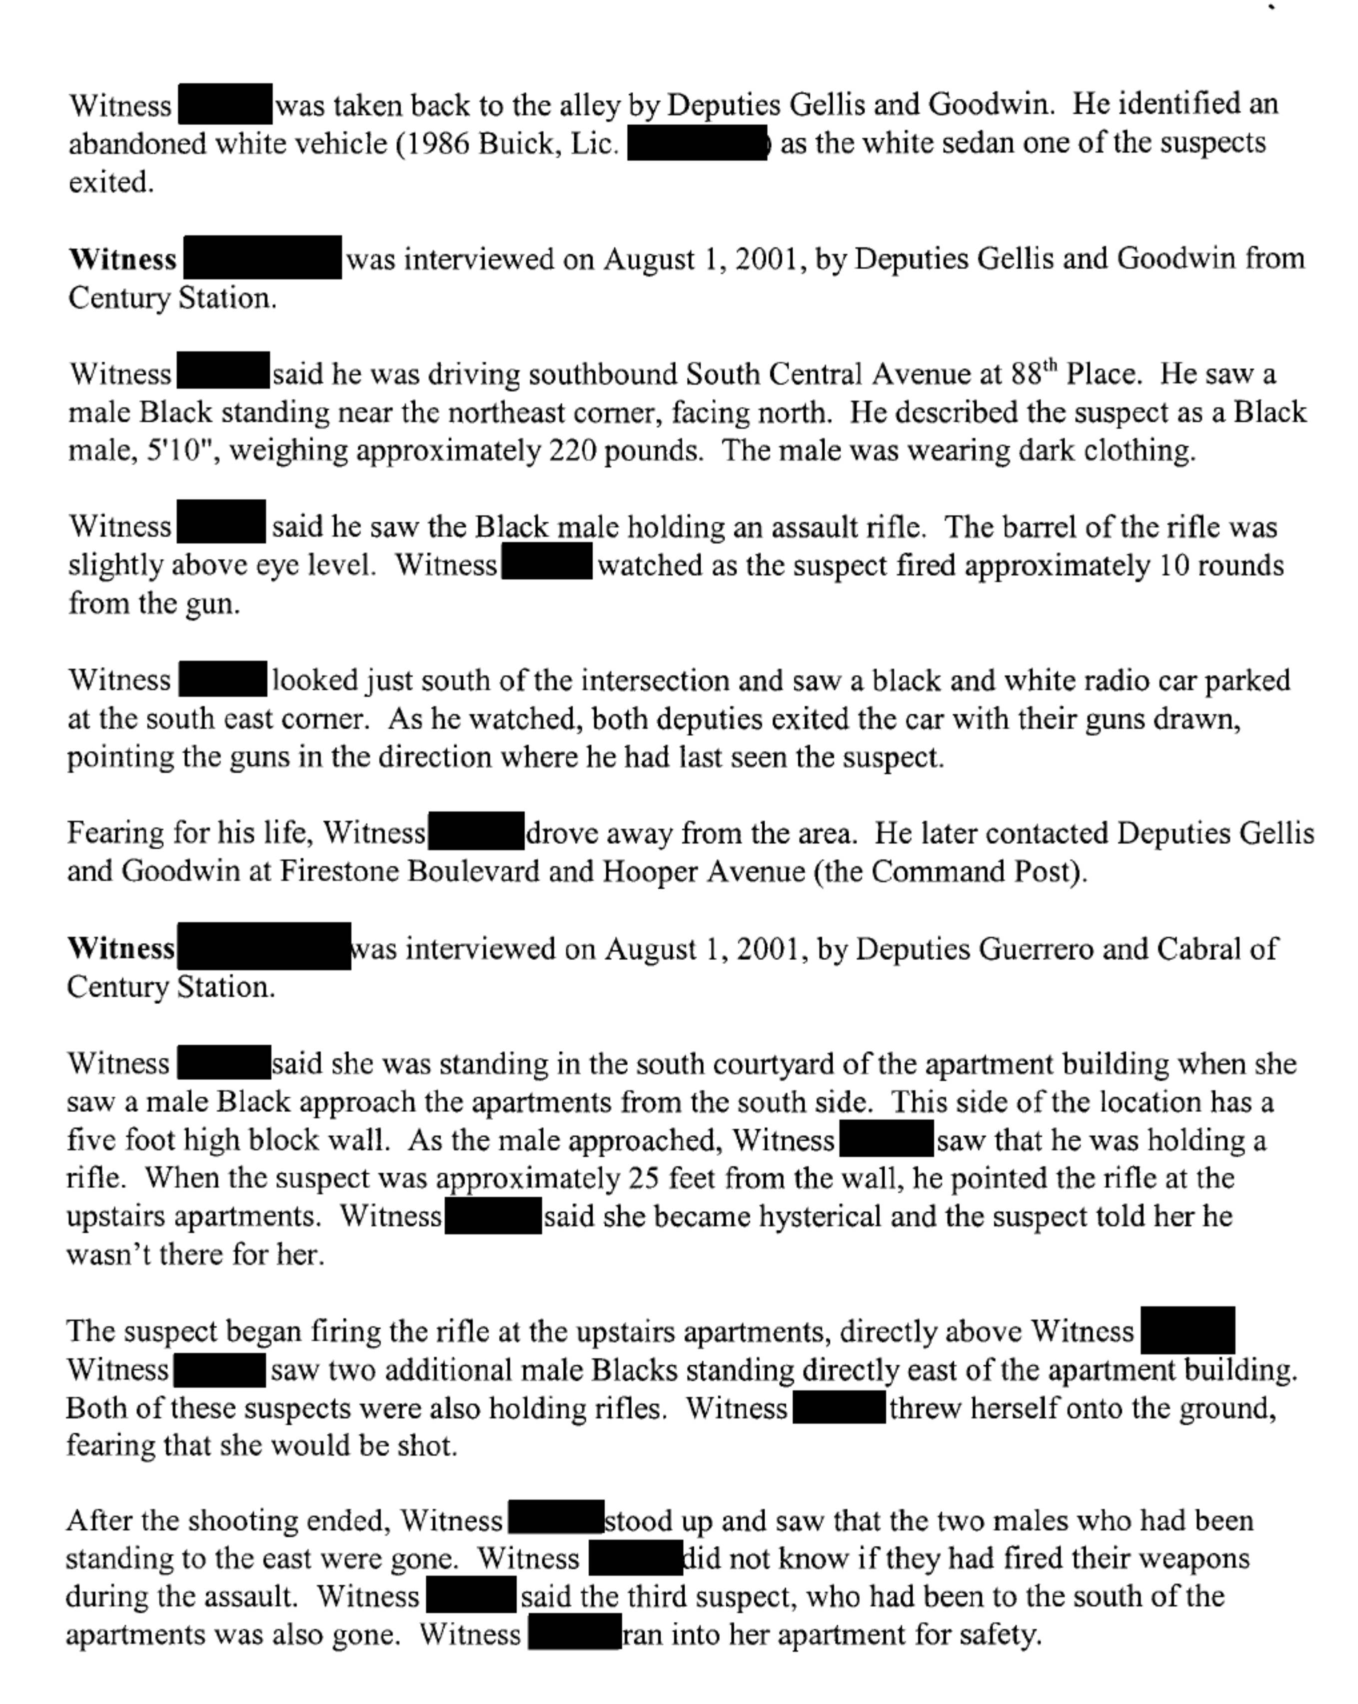

Deputy Walters saw that Deputy Torres had taken cover behind the engine block of their vehicle. The two conversed and Deputy Walters advised, via his Sheriff's radio, that they had been involved in a shooting. Deputy Walters believed people had been injured at the apartment building, so; additionally, requested paramedics.

WITNESS STATEMENTS

Witness [redacted] said he and a friend, whom he did not identify, were standing in the mouth of the north/south alley that runs directly behind (east) of [redacted] South Central Avenue. As they were speaking, Witness [redacted] saw two vehicles driving southbound in the alley, toward them. Witness [redacted] described the one vehicle as a Blazer and the other as a white, older model sedan (possibly Suspect Corswell). The two vehicles stopped directly east of [redacted] South Central Avenue. The driver of the white sedan exited, as did the passenger of the Blazer. The two had a conversation and then began walking toward Witness [redacted] and his friend.

As the two approached Witness [redacted] he saw that the person who had exited the Blazer was carrying an AK-47. Believing he was going to be shot, Witness [redacted] ran southbound out of the alley. He heard 8-10 gunshots in rapid succession. Witness [redacted] then ran westbound to Central Avenue, attempting to get to his home. As he turned onto Central Avenue, Witness [redacted] saw a Sheriff's Department radio car (Deputies Torres and Walters) stopped on Central Avenue, just south of 88th Place. Both deputies were standing outside their vehicle with their guns drawn. Fearing he would be shot, Witness [redacted] continued running southbound on Central Avenue.

Witness [redacted] was taken back to the alley by Deputies Gellis and Goodwin. He identified an abandoned white vehicle (1986 Buick, Lic. [redacted] as the white sedan one of the suspects exited.

Witness [redacted] was interviewed on August 1, 2001, by Deputies Gellis and Goodwin from Century Station.

Witness [redacted] said he was driving southbound South Central Avenue at 88th Place. He saw a male Black standing near the northeast corner, facing north. He described the suspect as a Black male, 5'10", weighing approximately 220 pounds. The male was wearing dark clothing.

Witness [redacted] said he saw the Black male holding an assault rifle. The barrel of the rifle was slightly above eye level. Witness [redacted] watched as the suspect fired approximately 10 rounds from the gun.

Witness [redacted] looked just south of the intersection and saw a black and white radio car parked at the south east corner. As he watched, both deputies exited the car with their guns drawn, pointing the guns in the direction where he had last seen the suspect.

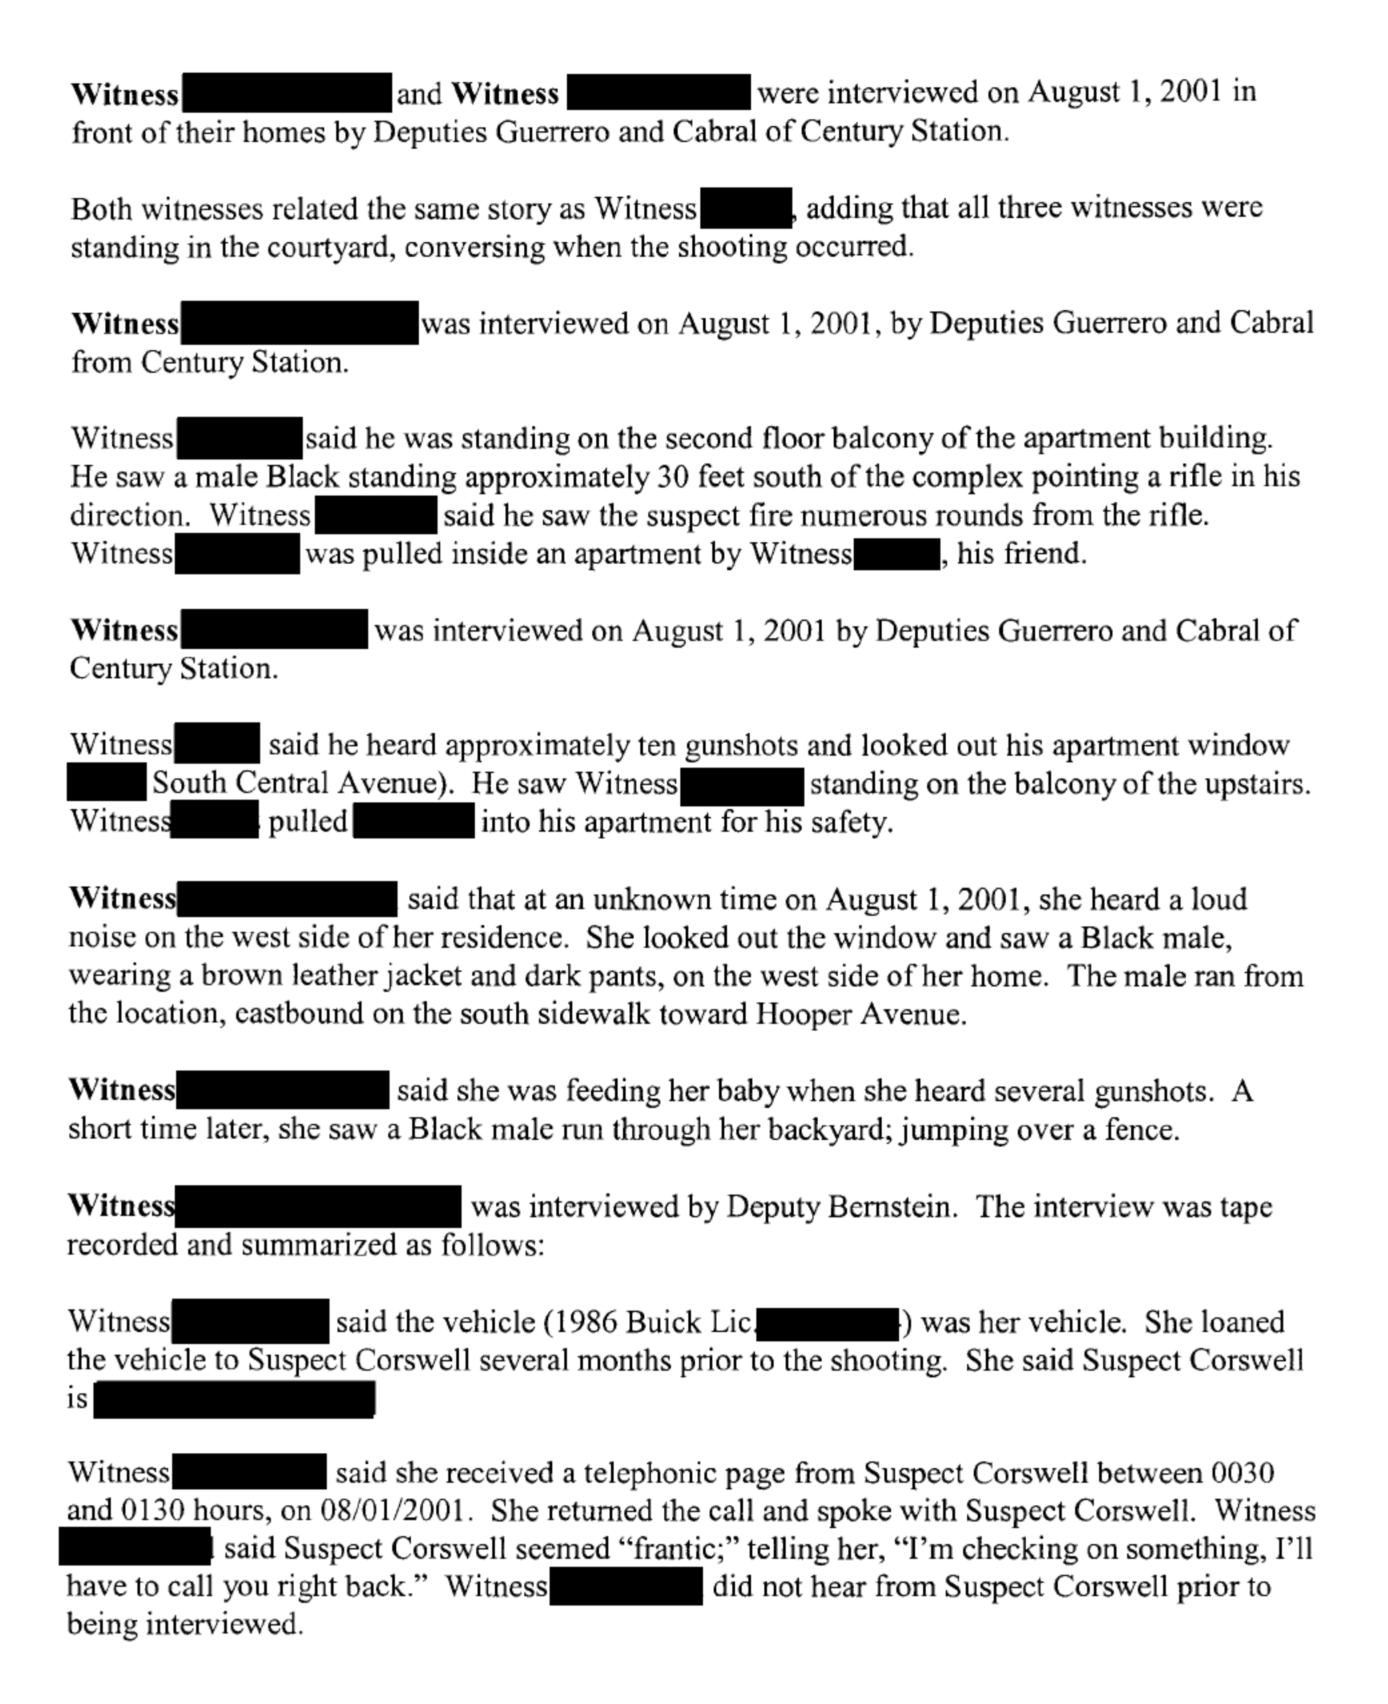

Fearing for his life, Witness [redacted] drove away from the area. He later contacted Deputies Gellis and Goodwin at Firestone Boulevard and Hooper Avenue (the Command Post).

Witness [redacted] was interviewed on August 1, 2001, by Deputies Guerrero and Cabral of Century Station.

Witness [redacted] said she was standing in the south courtyard of the apartment building when she saw a male Black approach the apartments from the south side. This side of the location has a five foot high block wall. As the male approached, Witness [redacted] saw that he was holding a rifle. When the suspect was approximately 25 feet from the wall, he pointed the rifle at the upstairs apartments. Witness [redacted] said she became hysterical and the suspect told her he wasn't there for her.

The suspect began firing the rifle at the upstairs apartments, directly above Witness [redacted] Witness [redacted] saw two additional male Blacks standing directly east of the apartment building. Both of these suspects were also holding rifles. Witness [redacted] threw herself onto the ground, fearing that she would be shot.

After the shooting ended, Witness [redacted] stood up and saw that the two males who had been standing to the east were gone. Witness [redacted] did not know if they had fired their weapons during the assault. Witness [redacted] said the third suspect, who had been to the south of the apartments was also gone. Witness [redacted] ran into her apartment for safety.

Witness [redacted] and Witness [redacted] were interviewed on August 1, 2001 in front of their homes by Deputies Guerrero and Cabral of Century Station.

Both witnesses related the same story as Witness [redacted], adding that all three witnesses were standing in the courtyard, conversing when the shooting occurred.

Witness [redacted] was interviewed on August 1, 2001, by Deputies Guerrero and Cabral from Century Station.

Witness [redacted] said he was standing on the second floor balcony of the apartment building. He saw a male Black standing approximately 30 feet south of the complex pointing a rifle in his direction. Witness [redacted] said he saw the suspect fire numerous rounds from the rifle. Witness [redacted] was pulled inside an apartment by Witness [redacted], his friend.

Witness [redacted] was interviewed on August 1, 2001 by Deputies Guerrero and Cabral of Century Station.

Witness [redacted] said he heard approximately ten gunshots and looked out his apartment window [redacted] South Central Avenue). He saw Witness [redacted] standing on the balcony of the upstairs. Witness [redacted] pulled [redacted] into his apartment for his safety.

Witness [redacted] said that at an unknown time on August 1, 2001, she heard a loud noise on the west side of her residence. She looked out the window and saw a Black male, wearing a brown leather jacket and dark pants, on the west side of her home. The male ran from the location, eastbound on the south sidewalk toward Hooper Avenue.

Witness [redacted] said she was feeding her baby when she heard several gunshots. A short time later, she saw a Black male run through her backyard; jumping over a fence.

Witness [redacted] was interviewed by Deputy Bernstein. The interview was tape recorded and summarized as follows:

Witness [redacted] said the vehicle (1986 Buick Lic [redacted]) was her vehicle. She loaned the vehicle to Suspect Corswell several months prior to the shooting. She said Suspect Corswell is [redacted]

Witness [redacted] said she received a telephonic page from Suspect Corswell between 0030 and 0130 hours, on 08/01/2001. She returned the call and spoke with Suspect Corswell. Witness [redacted] said Suspect Corswell seemed "frantic;" telling her, "I'm checking on something, I'll have to call you right back." Witness [redacted] did not hear from Suspect Corswell prior to being interviewed.

SUSPECT/INMATE STATEMENTS

Suspect Louis Corswell was spoken to on the phone by Detective Velasquez on August 1, 2001. During that conversation, Suspect Corswell said he was in Moreno Valley when the shooting occurred.

Suspect Corswell was again interviewed on August 2, 2001, by Detective Duncan. Suspect Corswell had come to Century Station to speak with Deputy Duncan regarding his girlfriend's car (1986 Buick Lic. [redacted]. This interview was tape recorded and kept at the Century Sheriff's Station.

Suspect Corswell said he drove to the alley behind [redacted] South Central Avenue to buy marijuana. He parked in the alley, retrieved $5.00 from his wallet and left his car, leaving his wallet on the seat. He began walking toward a Black male and a Black female when he heard gunshots and became frightened. As he ran north through the alley, he heard a second volley of gunshots.

When Suspect Corswell arrived at Firestone Boulevard he called his brother and told him that someone had shot at him. He then called the registered owner of the car he was driving, [redacted]. He told her that something had happened to her car and he would call her back.

Suspect Corswell could not remember if any other cars were parked in the alley when the shooting occurred. He said he tried to return to the vehicle, but the streets were blocked by the police.

Suspect Corswell said he had lied when he told Detective Velasquez he was in the Moreno Valley.

At the conclusion of this interview, Suspect Corswell was arrested.

Suspect Corswell was again interviewed on August 9, 2001, by Detective Velasquez at the Twin Towers Custody Facility. The interview was tape recorded and summarized as follows. A transcription of the interview is included with the police reports.

At the onset of the interview, Suspect Corswell asked that the tape recorder not be turned on "yet." Suspect Corswell asked what questions he was about to be asked. Deputy Velasquez gave a brief overview of the questions. While giving Detective Velasquez the outline, Suspect Corswell began to speak about the incident. Suspect Corswell said he had met three friends at a liquor store in the area. He refused to state his friend's names for fear of retaliation (he eventually told Detective Velasquez their names were "Virgil", "Pee Wee" and "Woody"). One of his friends had told him that he, the friend, had been disrespected by a member of the "Florencia" street gang. This friend told him that he was going to do some pay back. Suspect Corswell agreed to assist in the pay back.

Suspect Corswell drove to the north/south alley behind (east of) [redacted] South Central Avenue. He was followed by his friends in a black SUV. Suspect Corswell was instructed to stay in the alley and act as a look out for the police. As the shooting began, Suspect Corswell saw a black and white radio car driving south on South Central Avenue. Not wanting to get caught, Suspect Corswell ran south through the alley. Suspect Corswell said he was scared and left his vehicle, with his identification in the alley.

Suspect Corswell refused to tell Detective Velasquez what his three friends had done during the incident. He did state that "Virgil" was the friend who had been disrespected. Suspect Corswell said he went along with the plan for pay back because if he didn't "Virgil" would not hesitate to shoot him.

When the tape recorder was turned on, Suspect Corswell recanted his earlier statement. He returned to the statement of buying marijuana when he was approached by three Black males.

At the conclusion of the interview, Detective Velasquez asked Suspect Corswell looked through several photographs. Suspect Corswell identified three individuals as being the friends who wanted payback.

Suspect Corswell said "Woody" had the assault rifle during the shooting, "Pee Wee" had a 9mm handgun and he, Suspect Corswell, had a smaller semi automatic handgun. He and "Pee Wee" were to ensure that none of the intended victims ran east into the alley. When the shooting began, a woman began running toward them, he and "Pee Wee" became frightened, jumped over a fence and ran from the area.

At the conclusion of this non-taped portion of the interview, Suspect Corswell said he changed his story so many times because it didn't matter what he said, he was going to be charged with being an accessory to attempted murder anyway.

MISCELLANEOUS

Deputy Torres was able to positively identify Suspect Corswell after viewing several photo line-ups. Deputy Walters was unable to positively identify the suspect.
